

"Behold the Dawn"

The Vision of George Washington

(...) The Eisenhower régime has removed thousands from positions of authority within their internal security control and we know that further thousands still exist holding high official positions within the, so called, defence control.

Here are some excerpts from American sources:

The Arkansas Democrat quotes:

"Washington, NOT MOSCOW, is the danger point . . . The powers that be in Washington, not Russia's atom bomb in America's greatest fear."

The Kingdom Digest quotes:

"People wonder about the possibility of Russia invading this country, forgetting that she has already invaded. We are much concerned over Russia's ability to make atom bombs, forgetting that it is so easy to steal them that she has little need of making them. Some in a position to know believe that we are so infested with spies and traitors, that the first attack will be from within, and that it will be so well organized and cover our strategic points so completely, that we shall be unable to get a plane off the ground."

Here is a statement:

"Quoting a report from Rome, written by Karl H. Wiegend: 'The battlefield will be the United States, not Western Europe. That is the prediction and report that is being spread through Soviet and communistic channels in the soviet East German republic, according to reliable information that has reached certain quarters in Rome.'"

Years ago, when these points were first stressed, doubtless many folks thought such was wishful thinking on our part, in fact, it was called warmongering. But to-day it's a very different picture and many of the wiseacres shake their heads in bewilderment.

Only recently (June 1955 this was written) our local papers gave full details of the Eisenhower régime carrying out a fullscale evacuation plan in the city of Washington, wherein 4,000,000 people were evacuated from the principal centres within three hours of an alleged bombing attack by foreign planes. When President Eisenhower and 1,500 top-ranking dignitaries of the Government were safely evacuated to a secret point, from which they would be able to continue to order American retaliation upon any such invader. That very same evening, Russia's official paper Pravda announced the name of the secret place.

Some readers may have read, or heard, of the inspired vision of America's greatest President - George Washington. It has been printed from time to time, but to-day it is a matter of the greatest importance to any thinking person who may have the interests of Christianity at heart. This vision was disclosed by the President to Anthony Sherman, who set it down for the benefit of posterity and its fulfilment, to date, has been amazing in its accuracy.

Firstly, consider the type of man that George Washington really was. A man of outstanding religious conviction. A great thinker and a man of inspiration, who always prayed to God for the success of his troops before launching them into battle, and always prayed for inspiration to guide him in matters political or diplomatic, for the benefit of his country.

He certainly was the right type of man to have received an inspirational vision from the Spirit of God.

Here is the vision, as quoted by Washington:

"I was sitting at a table preparing a despatch. Looking up, I beheld opposite me a singularly beautiful female. I inquired the cause of her presence four times but received no answer. I felt a strange sensation spreading through me. I would have risen but my gaze was riveted. My tongue became powerless. All I could do was to gaze at my unknown visitor. Suddenly, the surrounding atmosphere grew luminous. I did not think. I did not reason. I did not move, all were alike impossible. I was only conscious of gazing fixedly at my companion.

"Presently, I heard a voice saying: 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' I beheld a heavy white vapour rising fold upon fold. This gradually dissipated and I looked upon a strange scene. Before me lay spread out in one vast plan all the countries of the world, Europe, Asia, Africa and America. I saw rolling and tossing between Europe and America the billows of Atlantic, and between Asia and America lay the Pacific.

"Said the mysterious voice: 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' I beheld a dark shadowy being like an angel standing, or rather floating, in mid-air between Europe and America. Dipping water out of the ocean in each hand, he sprinkled some upon America with his right hand, whilst with his left hand he cast some upon Europe. At once a dark cloud raised from these countries, and joined in mid-ocean. For awhile it remained stationary and then moved slightly westward, until it enveloped America. Sharp flashes of lightning gleamed through it at intervals, and I heard the smothered groans and cries of the American people.

"A second time the angel dipped from the ocean, and sprinkled it as before. The dark cloud was then drawn back to the ocean, in whose heaving billows it sank from view.

"A third time I heard the mysterious voice saying: 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' I cast my eyes upon America and beheld villages, towns and cities springing up, one after the other until the whole land from the Atlantic to the Pacific was dotted with them. Again I heard the voice say: 'Son of the Republic, the end of the century cometh, look and learn.'

"At this the dark shadowy angel turned his face southward, and from Africa I saw an ill-omened spectre approach the land. It flitted slowly and heavily over every town. The inhabitants set themselves in battle array against each other. As I continued looking, I saw a bright angel, on whose brow rested a crown of light on which was traced the word 'Union', bearing the American flag, which he placed before the divided nation and said: 'Remember ye are brethren.' Instantly, the inhabitants, casting from them their weapons, became friends once more, and united around the National Standard."

Let us digress for explanatory purposes: Omitting much of the symbolism, we noted that firstly the angel pointed out that the first happenings would be towards "the end of the century". He sprinkled water on Europe and America, resulting in "the smothered groans and cries of the American people". Surely, the "American War of Independence", which terminated in 1783. Washington retired in 1796 and died in 1799 - i.e. "the end of the century".

Secondly, the angel turned his face southward, and from Africa an ill-omened spectre arose. Negro slaves were captured from Africa and imported in thousands into America. It was this question of slavery that was the principal issue of the "American Civil war", between the north and the south, until ultimately peace was made on the word "Union", and the divided nation joined hands and became one people under the banner of the Standard, or flag, of the United States of America, or as the vision so very aptly stated: "I saw a bright angel, on whose brow rested a crown of light on which was traced the word 'Union', bearing the American flag, which he placed before the divided nation and said: 'Remember, ye are brethren.' Instantly, the inhabitants casting from them their weapons, became friends once more and united round the national Standard."

Up to this stage, surely, never has a more truthful vision been seen. Then, we must expect the second half of the vision to be just as truthful in its fulfilment. In my opinion, the latter half will be the fulfilment as outlined in Ezekiel, Chapters 38 and 39.

We revert to the second half of the vision:

"The dark shadowy angel placed a trumpet to his mouth and blew three blasts, and taking water from the ocean, he sprinkled it on Europe, Asia and Africa. then my eyes beheld a fearful scene. From each of these countries arose thick black clouds, they were soon joined in one. throughout this mass there beamed a dark red light, by which I saw hordes of armed men, who moved with the cloud (an airborne invasion), marching by land and sailing by sea to America, which country was enveloped in the volume of the cloud, and I dimly saw the armies devastate the whole country, and burn the villages, towns and cities that I had seen springing up. As my ears listened to the thundering of the cannon, clashing of swords and cries of millions in mortal combat. I again heard the mysterious voice saying: 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' "

Does it not outline Gog's attack on America? A great airborne invasion and, in accord with Ezekiel's prophecy, the attack on unwallled villages and towns, behind the unbarred gates of which they think to dwell in safety, having become fat and rich, with much cattle and goods, which the enemy ravage and loot. Troops marching by land to America, by an attack via Alaska into Canada. A simple measure as ice connects these countries, more particularly so in winter.

To resume the vision:

"When the view had ceased, the dark shadowy angel placed his trumpet once more to his mouth and blew a long and fearful blast. Instantly, a light as of a thousand suns shone down from above me, and pierced and broke into fragments the dark cloud which enveloped America. At the same moment the angel upon whose head still shone the word 'Union', and who bore our national flag in one hand and the sword in the other, descended from Heaven attended by legions of bright spirits. These joined the inhabitants of America, which, I perceived, were well nigh overcome, but who, immediately taking courage again, closed up their broken ranks and renewed the battle.

"Again, amid the fearful noise of the conflict, I heard: 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' As the voice ceased, the shadowy angel dipped water from the ocean for the last time and sprinkled it upon America. Instantly, the dark cloud rolled back, together with the armies it had brought, leaving the inhabitants of the land victorious. Then again I heard the bright angel who cried aloud: 'While the stars remain and the Heavens send down dew upon the earth, so long shall the Republic last.'

"The scene faded and dissolved. I was gazing again at my mysterious visitor, who said: 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is thus interpreted. Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The most fearful is the second, passing which the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his God, his land and Union.' "

With these words the vision vanished.

The angel stated: "Three great perils will come upon the Republic." From the point of view of prophecy paralleling history, we have shown the first to have been the American War of Independence. The second, the American Civil War, when brother fought against brother. The angel stressed that "the most fearful is the second, passing which the whole world united shall not prevail against her". Thus, there is no fear of defeat in the third attack, because, terrible as it will be for the inhabitants, eventually the Hosts of God come to their assistance with His legions of angels, which in the vision Washington saw "descend from Heaven" and the invaders were driven back and defeated.

I would assume that these "legions of angels" will not be seen by mankind, but the rout of communism will be absolute. Recall such an incident as "the angels of Mons", which routed the Germans in the 1914-18 campaign. Or the providential protection of our brave lads who struggled against insuperable odds in the "Battle of Britain". The hand of God which mysteriously protected the forces of freedom on D-Day, and V-Day, and on many other occasions in British history.

The late Professor C. A. L. Totten, of Yale University, a noted authority, wrote:

"The third and last peril clearly indicated a future invasion of our country by the Old World (Europe and Asia). The drift of events and Bible prophecy indicate that a great combination of powers will be the actor."

The Destiny magazine of America stated:

"The great combination, the Professor referred to as the actor in the fulfilment of the third peril, are to-day shown to be Soviet Russia and her satellites, who are confederating together for the attack upon America. Under modern methods of warfare, with airborne troops Soviet Russian infantry could quickly be brought into our land to support any successful coup by communists within and thus establish a Soviet zone of operation in the Western world, and from which the enemy would be able to press their campaign against us as depicted in the invasion seen by George Washington in his vision. The nation should organize to defeat a sudden blitz on the part of our enemies within and be assured of ultimately defeating their objectives. No time should be lost to meet such a contingency so that, when the blow falls, its effectiveness can be greatly minimized."

You are entitled to your own conclusions, but it would be an unwise person who would dare to laugh at such a vision, plus its historical fulfilment and the corroboration of what has happened, and is happening to-day, in the history of the nations.

The inspired word of the Prophets down through the centuries of Bible history has been fulfilled to the uttermost. Surely, then, the commonsense view would be to expect these things to happen and to be fully prepared for such a day, as the Bible makes emphatically clear that the prophetic Word of God will be fulfilled. There are dozens of instances given for our guidance. Let us consider just two.

Jesus Christ said: "I come not to destroy but to fulfil the law and the prophets." Why, then, disbelieve the prophetic Word of Holy men inspired by God?

If you are still conceited enough in your own importance to disbelieve the Word of the Prophets of God, then turn to the last chapter of the Book of Revelation, verses 18-19, and see if you are bumptious enough to disbelieve that, too.

*"For I testify unto every man that heareth the word of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.
...And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life."*

The decision is yours to accept - or reject!

How often, during two world wars, I stressed with much sorrow that Britain and the Dominions - as the descendants of ancient Israel of the ten tribes - would be punished for their sins and refined as gold through the fire and that it will continue so until we return - as a people - to the service of the Lord God Omnipotent, and that the day will come when the inhabitants of America will also be refined through tribulation and suffering, they being portion of God's Israel people, having descended, mostly, from the Manasseh line.

Those of us who live, will see America invaded, even as with the utmost certainty we shall see the invasion of Palestine by communism, at the time appointed in God's plan.

By what means can our trials and troubles be lessened or mitigated? Only by accepting the wisdom expressed by the angel to George Washington: "Let every child learn to live for his God, his land and Union." And that great truth applies even more so to this racial-stricken land of South Africa.

Finally, do not be fooled by the cant and hypocrisy of communism, or their many "isms" concerning their teaching of peace and safety and, so called, ideological co-existence, which denies the Divinity of Jesus Christ as the only begotten Son of God, but rather pay much attention to prophecy, which warns you:

"They shall cry peace, when there is no peace, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape."

Hold fast to your faith in Jesus Christ. Hold fast to God's promised protection to His Israel people. Go courageously forward into "the battle of the great day of God Almighty", when the heathen will be destroyed and Christian-Israel will be restored to their power as "the servants of the Lord", for that is your heritage and destiny - IF you claim to be Christian.
