

Fleecing God - John 20:29 & Judges 6:37-40

"Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." (JN 20:29).

At an earlier stage of my ministry I was always "fleecing" God. Like Gideon, I wanted to feel the wet fleece. My faith was propped up by "evidences" and "happenings". This kind of faith is important to the weak, but it is imperfect! It is always looking for signs and tokens. God cannot disappoint the hope which He Himself has begotten in us.

If He causes us to hope in a promise, we are to believe it with nothing more than hope. No signs, no evidence, no happenings, no circumstantial proofs. Just commit it and come away with our minds no more sad.

LESSON: - A fleece is an immature manoeuvre of imperfect faith. Faith must depend on The Word - not on the "wool" (= fleece)

Quotes from D. Wilkerson - "I'm not mad at God."
