

The Faith of Giants

"Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him" - JOB 13:15

Can a man purpose in his heart to trust God when it appears He is breaking promise? Can a man still speak the language of faith when all his leadings "blow up" in his face? The giants of faith did!

Men of great faith faced the most fiery trials. God has peculiar ways of developing faith, and the deeper in God you go, the more peculiar will be your testing. Do not be led to think that afflictions are necessarily proof you are displeasing Him! Miracles are produced only amidst impossibilities. So if you desire to be a child of faith - then ready yourself for a life of most peculiar testings.

LESSON: - Faith comes by using what you have. Don't wait for obstacles to be removed. Go forth anyhow! The most critical part of faith is "the last half hour!"

by David Wilkerson
from "I'm Not Mad at God" -1967

*****